Re: A Superior Model for Legal Reform

Dear Mr. Roth:

My name is Marlee-Jo Jacobson. My purpose is to ask you to bring the attention of our superior regulatory model to anyone in DC who can see the benefits of applying it to regulating lawyers in private practice. (That's only a beginning!)

The idea to ask came after reading the NFA's newsletter. It said that you were going to address congress in relationship to reauthorizing the CFTC. Before writing this letter, I waited several weeks to see if the energy passed, it didn't.

The President is in favor of national legal reform. The positive impact of applying our model would bring heaven to earth for all people. Federal regulation of lawyers started in 2002, more federal regulation will come to pass. Nothing surpasses the effectiveness of our regulatory model. Nor is there any government more kind or loving than what I've experienced in this industry. That statement goes back to Mrs. Klein and doing the CFTC green sheets when I was about 21.

Today this includes people at the CFTC that gave me information to use on <http://www.legal-disclosure.com> – The site summarizes an experience I lived through with a purpose of communicating what can be, rather than what is. Two sisters under a forged POA with help of lawyers, tried to steal my share of a rather large inheritance (including a NYME membership and all related income). In four years, not one state or city regulatory agency did anything to stop them or help me. One exception is the Department of Justice. A letter I received from them is at the site.

I built a meticulous model using a paper trail deliberately created through the experience. Every incident described offers a solution on how to prevent harm. If you read <http://www.legal-disclosure.com/reform.htm> it details every agency I contacted and their response. The department of justice has 100% of the pertinent documentation. 95% of it was copied for the site. I can prove more than what is publicly offered, however causing unnecessary harm needs to be avoided. Because of the incident, I met Maryanne Dinger. She was temporarily alleviated of over $20,000,000 when her Father died. Her case is still good, because there was never an accounting. The exact principles described on legal-disclosure were used to steal from Maryanne (her brother and ex-husband). The government is benefiting from her stolen property. Everybody knows and does nothing. Maryanne's contact information is also on the web site.

What I learned is how lawyers operate, how the government cooperates with them and how to prevent most of the corruption that exists. Our regulatory model, proven to be successful and superior, can be applied to lawyers in private practice, doctors and alternative medical practitioners. Massive amounts of corruption that permeates the United States would be dissolved.

Our model is a masterpiece aligned with God and life. The consciousness between what we do relative to what the rest of the country does seems to mirror a difference between old and new testament – If you think about it, the CFTC is a child relative to laws this country was built on – Bottom line is that foundation of the New York Legal structure is “set-up” to exploit people, rather than protect them – The surface claims to protect, however the underlying energy is of exploitation for the financial gain of lawyers. I will stand in against any human army and easily reveal truth of the last statement. These people sacrifice truth and human life to protect their illusion of righteous effectiveness. They tried to sacrifice me and lost! Because physical life is merely a function of consciousness, a healthy guess is that the problem permeates the entire country.

Maryanne said it: “The energy is being purged and replaced Marlee-Jo, God's will is living itself. Let's do our part for God, nothing else matters.”

I'm second generation in futures. My father helped build the NYME and instituted sized packages for potatoes. I have an article that says Jacobson Spud Plan saves the potato industry 30 million annually. Nothing was personally gained financially. It was his path or purpose, he just lived it.

This and SafeMoneyMetrics™ is my path, I'm living it! This letter is linked to <http://www.legal-disclosure.com/superior.htm> - That was done to save time money and energy.

Your kindest attention and consideration is appreciated.

Be Eternally Well
